WHY HOST? PART 1

Kimberly Cavalier, Janesville, 1st-Time Contest Manager in 2025
2nd-Time Host in 2027

Our district houses PK-12 in one building. Our staff is small. Our resources are limited. We don't have an auditorium. Still, I knew we had it in us to host. Here's how I knew that our small but mighty school could pull off a great District IE contest, and how yours can too.

- 1. I have a supportive community around me. I was worried that because speech is so new to our school, parents and community members would shy away from volunteering for an event that was unfamiliar to them. In true small town fashion, though, it was all hands on deck. Many of our volunteers and room chairs had never attended a speech contest before, but they were enthusiastic and offered can-do attitudes.
- 2. I knew I could rely on my students to help. By carving out tasks that could be done by students on contest day, I was able to save myself a lot of stress. Students can bring comment sheets to the main office, post scores, organize comment sheets in the tab room, work the concession stand, keep spectators quiet in the halls, and so much more. If you've got a handful of responsible students at your disposal, you're a great candidate to host.
- 3. Our facilities can be flexible. With a little out of the box thinking, I knew the facilities at my school would be sufficient for twelve centers. I reached out to a local coffee shop to set up a small stand and serve coffee. I utilized our whole building, not just the high school wing. I asked our activities director, veteran teachers, and custodians for advice. We ended up having much more space than I originally thought.
- 4. I had other coaches near me to provide counsel. One of the biggest motivators I had to host contest was the knowledge that I had several veteran coaches near me – or even if they weren't near me, they were just an email away. I never felt alone in my task; their expertise and unwavering support assured me that I had people to lean on. Lean on your people!
- 5. Above all, I WANTED to host. Perhaps most importantly was my desire to contribute something more to the IHSSA, to get even more involved. My best memories from high school come from speech contests, and now, as a coach, I've seen the power that speech holds in transforming students' lives. For that reason, I wanted to give back to the organization that has given me so very much. Your passion and love for speech is what matters most.

WHY HOST? PART 2

Jacki Pleggenkuhle, Waukee High School, Veteran Contest Manager

When I was in my second or third year of teaching, my mentor Denis Hildreth called me and said, “It’s time for you to host a contest.” Of course I objected but after compelling arguments from the Contest Manager Master himself, I reluctantly agreed. I hired judges and planned room/centers and then was pleasantly surprised when the District Officers and other coach friends and mentors came into my office to help on contest day. The event was a huge success! I’ve hosted 5 District contests and 5 State LG contests. And I LOVE HOSTING.

I thought I’d not know how to begin; however, the systems are set up by the IHSSA State Office. The meetings, the Contest Managers Manual, CAST supports tell me all I need to know about tasks and timelines. Anyone can host, because the processes are already provided. I just have to deal with the logistics and business practices specific to my school district and the rest is easy!

Waukee High School is a large school, but in years when we had lots of extra centers, it has felt like we didn’t have enough big rooms! Some years we have spilled over into other nearby school buildings, and in other years we’ve held the contest all in one place, turning regular classrooms into Readers Theatre centers. It can be done. Schools are told to be prepared to perform in a “normal classroom.” We all have space for hosting.

What I LOVE about hosting a contest is the responsibility, experience, and perspectives our students and parents gain when we bring IHSSA guests to our home. Students have to focus not just on their own performances, but on something bigger than all of us. At first I felt some pangs of guilt when my focus shifted a bit from my own team to serving all teams; however, I see that my own team steps up and is even better for having to manage themselves more. My students SHINE when given more responsibilities and more autonomy. Parents quickly learn how contest works. Additionally, the money we make by hosting allows us to have nice things. We use our profits for next year’s royalties, costumes, sets, All-State Festival tickets, and more! Hosting every few years funds our team without actual “fundraising,” and I love that.

The very best part of hosting is the relationships I have built with other coaches. Greeting coaches coming into the office, problem-solving alongside volunteers, and hanging out with the District Officers and All-State Reps has built friendships that I deeply cherish. I LOVE hosting speech contests!

ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT

Information regarding the Academic Achievement program for the IHSSA is in the online area of the IHSSA web site. Example: not Readers Theatre only, but all Large Group entries. If you have any questions concerning this award, please call the State Office.

CONTEST DATES FOR 2026-27

Be sure to check the page in this issue of SWIFT that has the dates of IHSSA events. Make copies and give them to your Activities Director, Principal, Superintendent, Counselors, office staff, fellow teaching staff, and, most importantly: YOUR STUDENTS. If we plan for these dates now, there will be less conflict in 2026-2027. For those of you who like to plan ahead, the IHSSA has the tentative calendar set for contest dates through the year 2030. This can be found under RESOURCES >> UNIFIED CALENDARS.

AWARDS

Please remember all awards will be shipped directly to your school from the factory. Therefore, we ask that you allow 2 -3 weeks for delivery. It is important to know that the State Office will NOT have any awards on hand for emergency requests. After April 30, no PO#s will be accepted for an award order. However, you still may order with a check or cash after April 30. Please plan AHEAD for your award ceremonies. Be sure to buy the IHSSA award for the extra official look! You are not allowed to use the IHSSA on your own.

NO POSTING on YOUTUBE

Please remember that the royalty agreement you have for contest does NOT cover your events to be posted on YouTube. If you have students or parents who are posting their events or performances on YouTube, be aware that you are not covered under any type of IHSSA agreement. It is strongly advised that these postings be taken down.

MORE notes

FAMILY WEEK 2026 DATES

The Iowa High School Speech Association, Iowa High School Music Association, Iowa High School Athletic Association and the Iowa Girls High School Athletic Union, issues a "Family Week" on the Unified Activities Federation Calendar. "Family Week" is a week that prohibits any coach or teacher/student contact and any unified activity event from occurring. That period will include Sunday through Sunday of Week 3 and Week 4 of the calendar. It will begin July 26, 2026 and extend through August 2, 2026. The Iowa High School Speech Association supports "Family Week", and there can be no speech, theatre, or debate activities within the IHSSA member schools during that week. All high school students, including incoming 9th graders, are covered under the rule and are not to have contact (on or off school premises) with teachers nor use school facilities during the eight day period.

HAVE YOU PAID ALL ENTRY FEES??

Please take a moment to make sure your fees are paid. At this time, we have several coaches schools who still have not paid for their District Large Group, SLG, District IE, SIE, or All-State fees, etc. Your invoices for all contests can be found on your login/password page. Please take a moment and check to see if your fees are paid. Debate, Lg.Group District/State/All State, IE District/State/All State, Membership, Convention, Awards. Please contact the IHSSA office for any questions.

CONTEST SITES + YOU!

We are still in need of CONTEST SITES for 2027! Please consider hosting. Hosting builds comradery and connection within your school community. Hosting is an excellent fund raiser for your IHSSA Family. AND...hosting allows you to be on your "home court!" No yellow hornet rides needed! Please call the State Office if you are interested.

SPRING MEETINGS + YOU!

Be sure to attend your respective District meeting. These meetings are essential for a coach to attend. This is NOT a rule change year. Very important items will be discussed and reviewed. This meeting is the place to start the process for the future and gain professional insight!

2026 HALL OF FAME NOMINATION

Hear Ye! Hear Ye! NOMINATE!

Be sure to take a moment and nominate someone for the IHSSA Hall of Fame. Induction into the Iowa High School Speech Association Hall of Fame is the highest honor the Speech Association may confer on an individual. It is presented to a distinguished individual of state-wide reputation and outstanding accomplishments. The contribution and service given by the inductee stem from dedication and commitment to the Iowa High School Speech programs beyond normally expected and superlative identification. By the model of their lifetime work they have exemplified most clearly and forcefully the ideas and purposes to which high school speech programs and competitions are dedicated.

If you are aware of a speech coach, administrator, or judge who fulfills the above criteria, please send the IHSSA a letter for recommendation. Your nomination will be held in strict confidence and forwarded to the Hall of Fame Jury for their consideration.

Please include a paragraph or two in which you justify why you believe this individual is worthy of being inducted into the IHSSA Hall of Fame.

Thank you - Hall of Fame Jury

JUDGE EVALUATION FORM

Your voice is important! After every contest the Judge Certification Committee asks for your insight and assistance in completing the "Judge Evaluation Forms". Here's why ...

Each August, the Judge Certification Committee thoroughly examines each and every individual evaluation form. Judges who have earned superior feedback receive positive affirmation from the State Office. Judges that are in need of support receive extra guidance and clarification. Your assessment makes the whole process circular -- our judges "judge" our students and we "judge" our judges. Also, this is your opportunity to model and exercise "justification". Ultimately this system of giving and receiving constructive feedback is better for the whole community: judges, coaches, and most importantly -- our students. Additionally, your evaluation assists the Judge Certification Committee in collecting information for areas that are in need of training and/or areas that require more clarification. Your feedback aids in the thoughtfulness of continued education to judges on the rules as well as how to properly interpret and justify the IHSSA Constitution.

We kindly ask that you complete a judge evaluation form as close to the end of each contest day as possible. Your thoughts will be fresh in your mind before you encounter your next contest day and your next round of judges. Your Contest Manager will include a reminder and specific instructions for completing the "Judge Evaluation Forms" with your ballots.

COACH REMINDER: Please complete a "JUDGE EVALUATION FORM" for each of your judges.
THANK YOU! IHSSA JUDGE CERTIFICATION COMMITTEE

2. Click on "Online Registration" on the right of your screen.
3. Then, continue to log in as you would normally do to register.
4. Click on "Judge Evaluation Forms" at the bottom of the IHSSA Online Forms page.
